LICENSE SUMMARY — MedBinice Template Quick summary: When you buy this template you get the files to build and run one or more websites depending on the license you buy. You are allowed to edit and use the template, but you cannot resell the original template files or give them away to others. What you CAN do: - Use the template on one website with a Single-Site license; edit colors, images, layout, and content. - Use the template on multiple client websites only if you purchase an Extended or Agency license (check the product page for exact limits). - Deliver a finished website to a client built from the template (counts as a permitted use if within license limits). What you CANNOT do: - Resell or redistribute the raw template files to third parties. - Include the template in a product that allows others to extract and reuse the source files (unless explicitly permitted). - Claim original authorship of the template design/code. Support & updates: - 30 days of email support for setup and bug fixes from the purchase date. - Updates may be provided; not guaranteed indefinitely. Refund policy: - Direct purchases: refunds within 7 days if the item has not been downloaded or used. - Marketplace purchases: follow marketplace refund rules. Upgrades & transfers: - You can upgrade licenses by paying the difference. - Transfers require written consent and notification to the Author. Contact: support@egbujishilohportfolio.netlify.app FAQ (short): Q: Can I use the template for multiple clients? A: Only with an Extended or Agency license. Q: Can I remove attribution? A: Only if your purchased license permits credit removal; check the product page. Q: What if I need customization? A: Paid customization is available; contact support for a quote.
